Day 03

CAIRO

After your breakfast get ready for a guided tour of the renowned Egyptian Museum, the Citadel of Saladdin, the Alabaster Mosque of Mohammed Ali. From here you will head to the Coptic area of Cairo and the fortress of Babylon. Built on the ruins of this fortress is the church of St. Mary's well known as the Hanging Church. Your last stop is St. Sergius known to be the resting place for the holy family. Return to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Day 04

LUXOR

After breakfast proceed to the airport and board a flight to Luxor, a city on the east bank of the River Nile. Your tour includes a visit to Karnak temple and the intriguing remains of an ancient Christian church and Abu Haggia Mosque representing all the three religion in one site. After the whole day tour, transfer to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Day 05

LUXOR CITY TOUR

Luxor is also known as the valley of kings and queen. Today you will visit the west bank of Luxor. It holds the tombs of nearly 80 royal wives and children of which the most famous is that of Queen Nefertari. The partly rock-hewn Mortuary Temple of Hatshepsut at Deir el-Bahri is simply amazing. When you reach the West Bank the first monument you see is the Colossi of Memnon: the two enthroned statues of Amenhotep III. After your exciting tour, fly back to Cairo.
